INDEX TO VOL. CXCVI.

ALADORE, Chaps. XX.-XXVIII., 39—XXIX.-XXXVI., 176—XXXVII.-XLII., 371—XLIII.-LI., 529—LII.-LVIII. (the end), 631.

ANATOLIA, WITH KNAPSACKS IN, 747.

ARMIES, IMPROVISED, 547.

ARMY, A TUDOR: I., Offensive, 195; II., Defensive, 346.

BAGEHOT, WALTER, 505. Born in 1826, ib.—at University College, London, 506—married in 1858, 507—advice sought by statesmen on both sides in matters of finance, ib.—outstanding characteristics, 508 et seq.—essay on "Bishop Butler" quoted, 511—as a literary critic, 512—a thorough conservative, et seq.

BIBLE, THE SOCIALIST'S, 100.

BLIND MOONE OF LONDON, 359.

BOY, THE MEDIEVAL, 604.

"BRACKETED FIRST," 1.

British Citizen, type of, 857 et seq.

BRONCO, THE, 112. History of the horse, ib.—the range-bred cow-horse a strain of the old Spanish horse, 113—high training of which he is capable, 115—first experience of the novice with a buck-jumper, 116—writer's first obtrusion upon a horse of this order, 117—different kinds of fools among horses, 118—ropes and a knowledge of their uses essential, 122—difference in demeanour of cow-horses and range-bred Indian animals, 123.

Burgundy Yeoman Stock, a, 580.

CARE OF THE WOUNDED IN WAR, THE, 362. Likely requirements, ib.—"regimental stretcher-bearers" and temporary shelter, 363—the Royal Army Medical Corps' method of collecting wounded, ib.—a Field Ambulance encampment, 364—plan of chain of evacuation from Field Ambulance to Base hospital, ib. et seq.—an imaginary "case," 367 et seq.

'Casanova, Venetian, Jacques,' by Charles Samaran, notice of, 135 et seq.

Centenary of 'Waverley,' the, 276.

Chamberlain, Joseph, death of, 282—a born leader of men, 283—at the Colonial Office, 285—most energetic statesman of his time, 286.

CHANG: HIS BELL, 268.

COOKERY, MEDIEVAL, 765.

Crawford, Lord, and alien enemies, 862.

"Culture," the march of, 562.

CYTHERA, THE NEW, 613.

DARK, INTO THE, 164.

DISRAELI, BENJAMIN, 849. Sir Robert Peel's supremacy perishes, ib.—Disraeli makes his position clear, 850—withdrawal of Protection, ib.—his Budget, 851—his satire, 852—Budget flung into the limbo of forgotten things, ib.—a militant Jew, 853—but a statesman of genius, 854—believed in a cordial understanding with France, 855—his literary touch, 856.

EATING, THE PLEASURES OF, 73.

Egoism of Demagogues, the, 133.

England, German hatred of, 565.

FIRST HUNDRED THOUSAND, THE, Chaps. I.-IV., 706—V., VI., 734.

FIVE-FOUR-EIGHT, 401.

France and Belgium, 399.

France, Political Crisis in, 127.

FRANCE, TWO SKETCHES FROM: A

Messenger of War Tidings, 577—a Burgundy Yeoman Stock, 580.

Garden of Eden, from the, to the Passage of the Jordan, 425.
'George the Third and Charles Fox,' by Sir G. O. Trevelyan, notice of, 701 et seq.
Government and War Correspondents, 864.

Haldane, Lord, levity of, 862.
History of the American Revolution, Trevelyan's, 701 et seq.
Holland and the Scheldt, 798.
Honan, the Red Fox of, 32.

Improvised Armies, 547.
Incident, a Frontier, 303.
Incident, an International, 467.
India and the War, 829. Attitude of the Indian Chiefs and people, ib.—Indian innately loyal, 830—soldierly spirit and traditions, ib.—contrasts in climate, &c., 831—religion, ib.—beginning of British connection, 833—rivalry between French and British, 834—foundation of British supremacy laid, 835—Warren Hastings first Governor-General, 836—Lord Wellesley's tenure of office, 839—policy too bold for East India Company, 840—Indian wars, ib. et seq.—the Mutiny, 842 et seq.—consolidation and internal progress the keynote of British rule, 846 et seq.
Influence of the Waverley Novels in France and in England, the, 279.
Irish Ambulance in France, with the, 1870-71, 447.

Jordan, from the Garden of Eden to the Passage of the, 425.
Journal of Edmond de Goncourt, the, 391 et seq.

Kheddah, a Southern India, 518.

Law of Nations and the Law of Necessity, the, 694.
'Life of Benjamin Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield,' by William Flavelle Monypenny and George Earle Buckle, vol. iii., notice of, 849 et seq.
'Life of Walter Bagehot,' by his sister-in-law, Mrs Russell Barrington, notice of, 505.
Lighter Side of School Life, the: II., The House-master, 23—III., Some Form-masters (I., The Novice; II., The Expert), 139—IV., Boys (I., The Government; II., The Opposition), 152—V., The Pursuit of Knowledge, 323—VI., "My People," 333—VII., The Father of the Man (the end), 458.
Literature of War, the, 397.
Live Beef by Land and Sea, with, 644.
Lok, Michael, 58.
London, Blind Moone of, 359.

Medieval Boy, the, 604.
Medieval Cookery, 765.
Messenger of War Tidings, a, 577.
Michael Lok, 58. English merchants interested in discovery of new route to the Pacific, ib.—Michael Lok born about 1532, 59—early life, ib.—travels through nearly every country in Christendom and returns to England, ib.—renews acquaintance with Captain Martin Frobisher, 60—Muscovy Company license Frobisher to discover North-West Passage, 61—sails from Gravesend in June 1576, 62—arrives home in October, ib.—report raises high hopes of success, ib.—curiosity aroused by fragment of black ore, 63—sails on second and third voyages, returning with ore, 64 et seq.—Lok faced with huge bill of expenses, 66—in prison, but obtains discharge, 68—occasional glimpses of his proceedings, 69—consul at Aleppo, ib.—dismissed from his office, 70—little known of last years, and date and place of end unknown, 72.
Minerva and the Houseboat, 207.
Miracle Making up to Date, 307.
Moral Qualities in War, 287. Importance and relative value of, ib.—study of past campaigns of great assistance, 289—historical illustrations, ib. et seq.—necessary virtues, 292—youth must be imbued with sentiments of duty, 293—luxurious living and soldierly efficiency, 294—questions which apply principally to officers, 295—discipline essential, 296—jealousies, &c., amongst leaders, 297—strong sense of duty a powerful incentive, 298—lack of readiness to accept responsibility, ib.—the "joy of responsibility," 299—some thoughts about the fighting man's death, 300 et seq.
Muhammad Yusuf, Nash: His Crime and its Redemption, 588.
Musings without Method: July, 127—August, 276—September, 391—October 562—November, 694—December, 857.

New Cythera, the, 613.
Nicky-Nan, Reservist, Chaps. I.-III., 666—IV.-VI., 807.
Nietzsche and Pan-Germanism, 696—madness and death of, 701.

NIGERIA, WOMEN IN NORTHERN, 257.

OLD MAN OSSO: BEARSLAYER AND GENTLEMAN, 245.

OUTPOSTS, FROM THE—
"The Truth," 82.
"Pax Britannica," 93.
Into the Dark, 164.
A Frontier Incident, 303.
Miracle Making up to Date, 307.
A Southern India Kheddah, 518.
Muhammad Yusuf, Nazr: His Crime and its Redemption, 588.
A Border Vendetta, 774.

Overman, the, 699.

Pan-German Excuse for Brutality, 569.

Paris in 1870, 393.

PARIS, 1870-1914, 717. Difference between the present situation of France and that of forty-four years ago, ib.—military and political situation in 1870, 718—three attempts by the Communists to overthrow the Government, 719 et seq.—attitude and sentiments of the French people at the present time, 722 et seq.—possibility of Paris being besieged foreseen, 727—temporary transfer of the capital to Bordeaux, 728—"Tauben," 729—danger of Paris being attacked averted, 731—realisation of Kaiser's ambition most improbable, 733.

"PAX BRITANNICA," 93.

PERSIAN PLAYS, SOME, 225.

PILGRIM ROAD, A GREAT, 655.

PLEASURES OF EATING, THE, 73.

'Progress and Poverty,' by Henry George: see The Socialist's Bible.

PYRENEES IN SPRING, THE, 687.

Radicals disloyal, only the, 571.

Raglan, a letter from Lord, 574.

RED FOX OF HONAN, THE, 32.

ROAD, A GREAT PILGRIM, 655.

Roberts, Lord, death of, 865.

Safety of England, Mr M'Kenna and, 863.

SCHELDT, HOLLAND AND THE, 798. Disillusionments which the Great War is bringing to the Kaiser, ib.—dispositions made by Holland to safeguard her position, 799—duty of a neutral State, 800—Holland's neutrality becoming a matter of serious difficulty, 803—may at length be forced into the battle, 806.

SCHOOL LIFE, THE LIGHTER SIDE OF: II., The House-master, 23—III., Some Form-masters (I., The Novice; II., The Expert), 139—IV., Boys (I., The Government; II., The Opposition), 152—V., The Pursuit of Knowledge, 323—VI., "My People," 333—VII., The Father of the Man (the end), 458.

SKETCHES FROM FRANCE, TWO: A Messenger of War Tidings, 577—a Burgundy Yeoman Stock, 580.

SOCIALIST'S BIBLE, THE, 100.

SOME PERSIAN PLAYS, 225.

South Africa, War Correspondents in, 575.

St James of Compostella, in Galicia: see Road, a Great Pilgrim.

Tahiti: see Cythera, the New.

TREK, A YEOMANRY, 384.

"TRUTH, THE," 82.

TUDOR ARMY, A: I., Offensive, 195. The wars of 1544-5, ib.—three distinct questions of the day, ib.—measures for the invasion of south-eastern Scotland, 196—detailed plans, 197—brief summary of the events in Scotland, 198—the effort against France, 199—a bird's-eye view of our island in 1544, 200—the King and his Council, 201—organisation of the army, 202—feeding, finance, &c., 204—the Channel crossed, 205—thrown upon the defensive, 206. II., Defensive, 346. England's position one of great danger in 1544, ib.—French and English fleets, 347—coast defences, 348—militia, ib.—mercenaries, 350—estimated expenditure, 351—events on the Borders, 352—England's preparations complete, 354—French galleys cannonade the fleet, 355—French fleet leave Portsmouth, 356—Scots invasion never launched, 357—longbow superseded by musket, ib. et seq.

VENDETTA, A BORDER, 774.

"Wait and see" policy of Mr Asquith 861.

War, a homely vision of, 391.

War Correspondent, the, 573.

WAR, INDIA AND THE, 829.

WAR, MORAL QUALITIES IN, 287.

WAR, THE, 413. Prospect should have been foreseen, ib.—Germans manœuvring for a favourable opening, 414—masterpiece of German insolence, 415—enters upon the conflict in a spirit of braggadocio, 418—mistook the temper of England, France, and Belgium, 422 et seq.

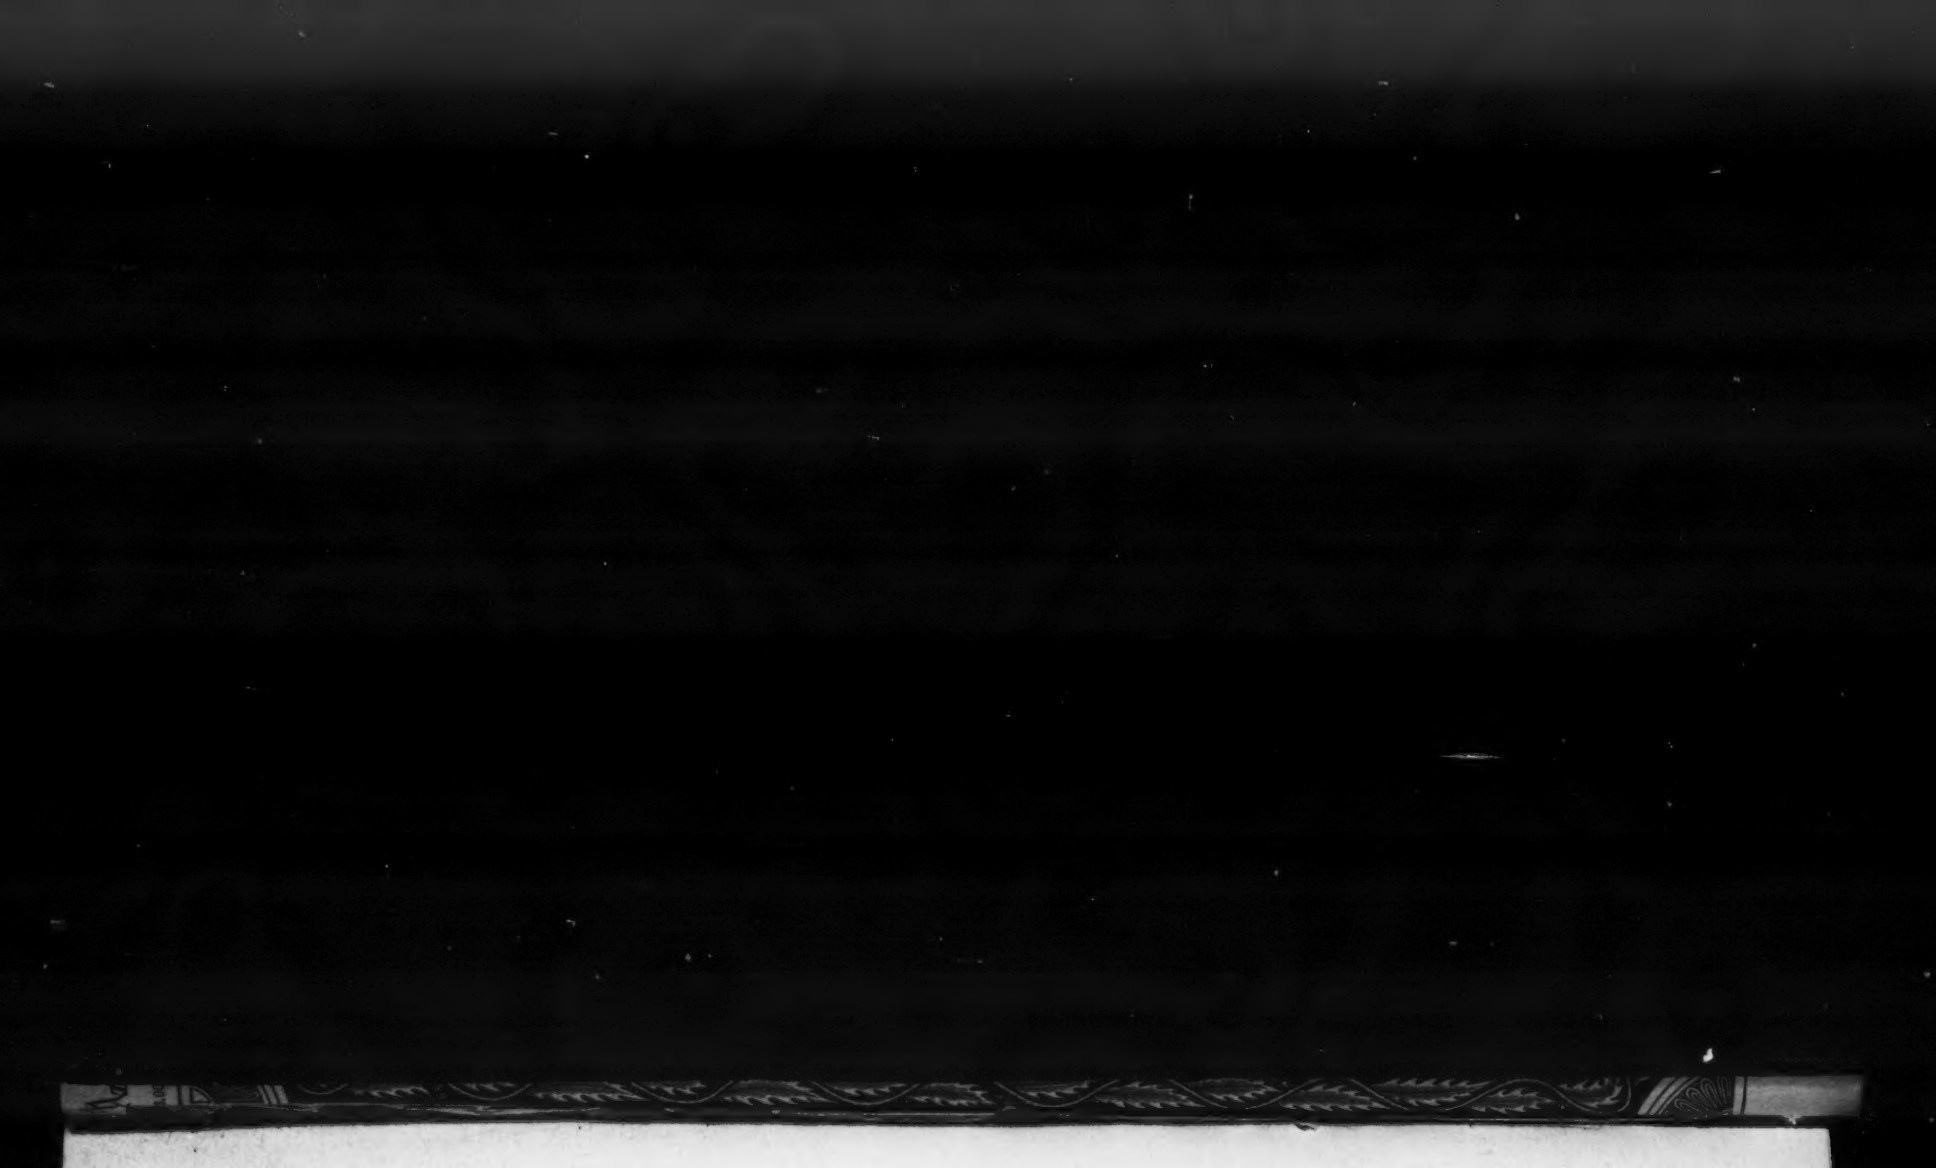
WAR, THE CARE OF THE WOUNDED IN, 362.

'Waverley,' the Centenary of, 276.

Wells, Mr, quoted, 860.

WITH KNAPSACKS IN ANATOLIA, 747.

WITH LIVE BEEF BY LAND AND SEA, 644.
WITH THE IRISH AMBULANCE IN FRANCE, 1870-71, 447.
WOMEN IN NORTHERN NIGERIA, 257. Debarred from spinsterhood, ib. — early betrothals among certain tribes, 258 — diversity in preliminaries of marriage, ib.—ordinary life of Moslem women, 259—schools, 260—procedure in regard to marriage, ib. et seq.—great feasting at weddings, 263—farming and trade an important part of woman's work, 264—widows and widowers, 266 et seq.
Wounded in War, 362.

YEOMANRY TREK, A, 384.


Printed by William Blackwood and Sons.